SUNSHINE DOWN
AND THERE'S NOTHING
BUT RIVERS, WONDER WHAT KIND OF

THINGS THEY CARRY BY DOWN,
DOWN TO THE LAKES - GREW UP IN?

BECAUSE LAKES WERE
MY SECOND AND
THIRD MOTHER, AND WHEN I'VE BEEN

AWAY TOO LONG
CAN'T DREAM ABOUT ANYTHING BUT STARS

not a lot of surfing at indiana
dunes

when you were done
to

ling

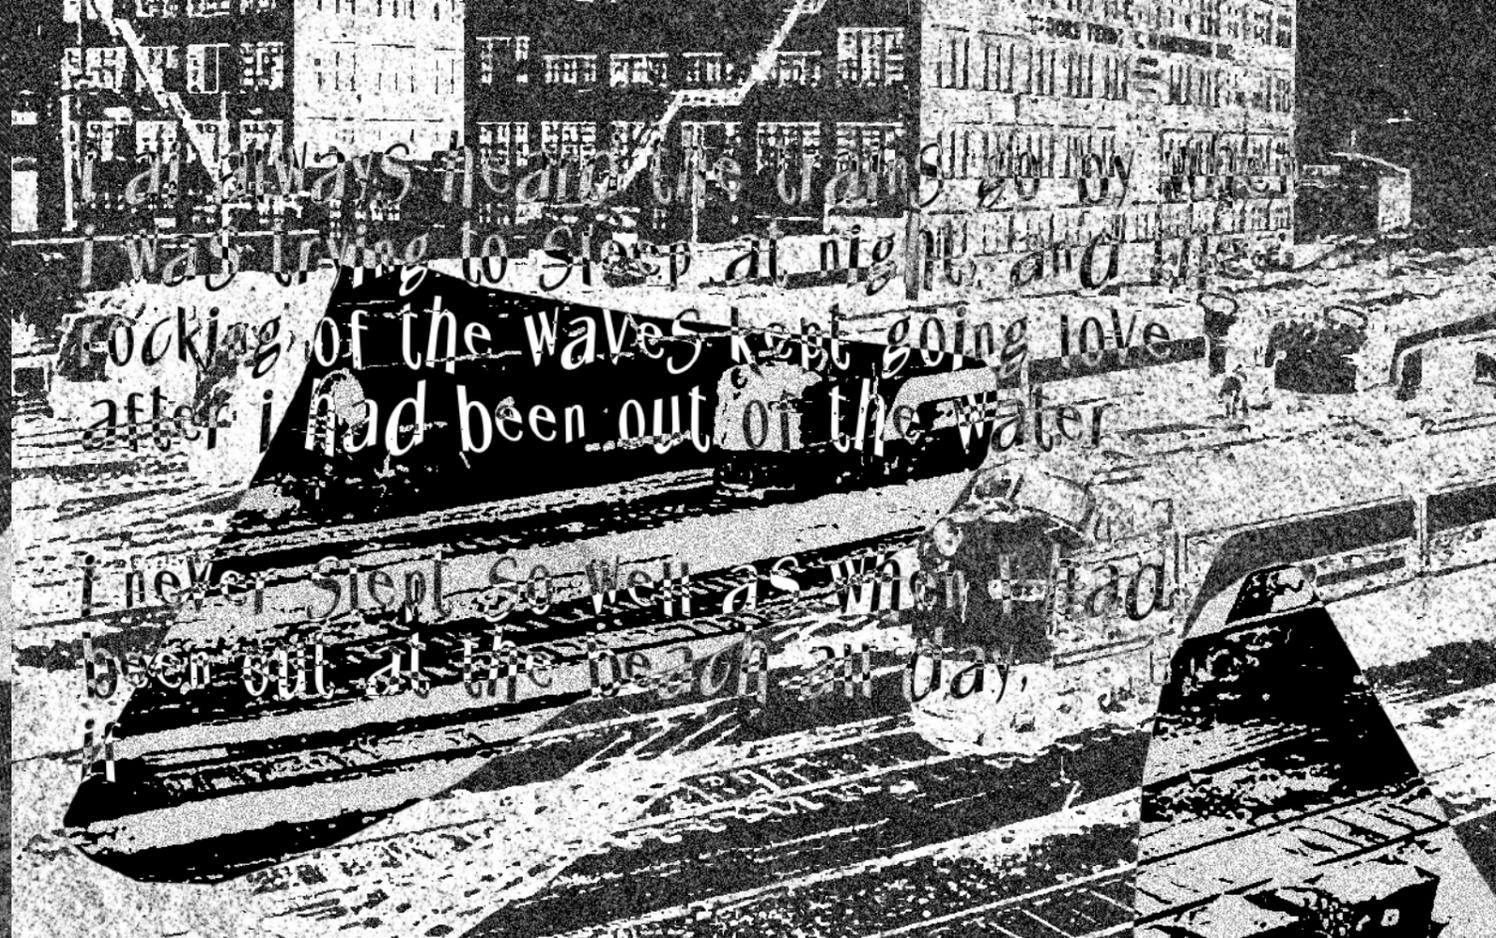

down the dunes,
you
saw the power plant

just think it would have rilled to be able to
 surf
 down the dunes and powerplant

I always nearly always go by i was trying to sleep at night and rocking of the waves kept going love after i had been out of the water i never slept so well as when i had been out at the beach all day but also so i recall

feeling like waves
 as i muddled on

I catch myself wishing I could leave all the lakes and railyards
and rivers behind.

I'd wake up somewhere like Hawai'i or Queenstown. I could spend every night feeling waves rock me to sleep, even if I was alone.
